Combining two half-day programs to create a full day of summer fun in Balboa Park! Please refer to the back side of this brochure for the half-day camp program schedule. Important note: Half-day camp registration begins March 4th!

To register for camps:
- Read each institution program description and choose what best fits your child's interest and grade level.
- Make a list of back-up programs before you call to register, just in case your child's first choice is sold out.
- Please contact each institution directly for camp registration. We regret we can not provide centralized registration.
- Please notify each institution if your child is participating in the full-day collaboration.
- Additional information, including camp descriptions and registration fees, can be found by visiting each website or calling each institution.
- Only institutions listed in this brochure are a part of the approved Summer Camp Collaborative.

Explore a variety of art mediums: mono prints, pastel painting, leather craft, 3-D tiles, along with surprises. Go home with a box full art and make new friends.
Why is this a great deal for families?

- Lunch time supervision is provided by morning camp staff for children participating in two half-day camps (meals are not provided).
- Morning camp staff will escort your child to the afternoon program at participating institutions.
- This means you can drop your child off at the morning camp and pick your child up at the afternoon camp.
- Contact information for registration is listed with each camp description.
